Dear Bob,

I am delighted that you are able to speak at our Colloquium on "Intelligence Requirements for the 1990's." Your support of the Consortium's educational activities is most encouraging, and is greatly appreciated.

As soon as possible, we will send you a copy of the two papers. We would welcome your comments on them or any other issues you feel are relevant to our discussion. We ask that you speak for fifteen to forty-five minutes.

Needless to say, we would be very pleased to have you with us at any time on Saturday as well.

Once again, many many thanks. All the best.

Sincerely,

Roy Godson
